181 Mattapoisett Road wood cutting and processing. Chairman Davignon read the letter drafted to be issued to Mr. & Mrs. Perry at 181 Mattapoisett Road. Discussion ensued about the letter and restrictions on weekends. Attny Gomes spoke on behalf of his client Mr. & Mrs. Souza at 183 Mattapoisett Road. Appreciates the letter drawn up by the board and hopes this will be followed but also doesn't feel that the Souza's should be restricted because he has never had one complaint against him however, he will follow the restriction placed on him as well. Attny Gomes hopes that Mr. Perry does abide by the rules set against him and he is willing to go forward with Civil Action if he does not and will approach this board again. He also expressed that on Holidays and Sundays are an issue and feels they should be restricted as well. Mr. Fortin wanted to point out that this is a single situation for restrictions for wood cutting that has gotten out of hand. More discussion ensued about cutting wood on Holidays and after some discussion Chairman Davignon agrees that Holidays should be restricted as well between November through March. Mr. Fortin made a motion to accept the letter with revising the wording to add Holidays. Mr. Medeiros seconded the motion, all were in favor, motion carries 3-0.
