REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

To the Officials and Residents of the Town of Acushnet :

The Board of Health respectfully submits its annual report for the year 1937.

Immediately following the annual election, the newly elected member having been duly sworn into office, the Board of Health met and completed the following organization for the ensuing year.

Chairman—Joel P. Bradford, M. D.

Secretary—Alexander Newton

Agent and Inspector of Licenses—Charles Dietz

Allen E. Weeks was nominated Inspector of Slaughtering and following his appointment he was duly sworn into office and has performed his duties in his customary careful way.

The year's work has been more than usually difficult on account of the universal depression with its attendant lack of reasonable nutritious food for the children at the period in which they are especially susceptible to contagious or nutritional diseases. Especially deplorable is the fact that on account of the mandatory high price of milk it makes the free use by the majority of the children impossible.

The result of this lack is surely and steadily undermining the constitution and reducing the health of these children to an extent that will not be overcome for several succeeding generations.

The Board has found several flagrant failures of parents and others to report contagious diseases of which they are familiar, this causing a spreading of these diseases entirely unnecessarily. The Chairman of the Board acting upon a rumor uncovered twelve cases of contagious diseases in three hours drive.

We wish to say that the law states that "Any householder or other person knowing of the existance of any contagious disease and failing to report the same shall be punished by a severe punishment" and we earnestly urge our citizens not to let the presence of a contagious disease go unnoticed.

The usual trouble with the "Town Dumps" has continued and will until in some future time we may be able to maintain a supervised town dump and oblige all to use it. We believe that our citizens join with us in a desire to keep our town in a clean healthy condition and will cooperate with us in keeping their yards, the streets and sidewalks, as well as the regular town dumps in a healthy and orderly state.

We have been very fortunate in our cases of tubercular diseases and our cost has been kept well down, and been a factor in our ability to finish the year under our budget.

The usual number of minor complaints have been adjusted and the general condition of the town kept satisfactory.

The following contagious diseases were reported in the town during the year of 1937.

Chicken Pox	15
Dog Bite	1
Measles	42
Ophthalmia Neonatorum	1
Scarlet Fever	4

Poliomyelitis	1
Pulmonary Tuberculosis	5
Tubercular Hip	1
Whooping Cough	2
Total	<hr/> 72

Number of deaths occurring in town during the year—94.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Acushnet School Committee and Citizens of Acushnet:

I respectfully submit my sixth annual report as Superintendent of the Acushnet School System.

I am satisfied that our schools are functioning smoothly both from an academic as well as an administrative angle.

The year 1937 saw many administrative policies altered for the better. Having devoted much of my 1936 report to academic problems I shall dwell largely with accomplishments in the field of administration in my current report.

On March 10, 1937 the School Committee re-organized with Edgar B. Cormier as Chairman and Albert F. Ford, Secretary.

A consolidated school graduation was deemed preferable to the previous plan of three distinct graduations. All eighth grade graduates received their diplomas in June at the Marie S. Howard School Auditorium. Concentrating the exercises in this manner proved to be much more practical. Many favorable comments were forthcoming from interested citizens. Supervision was facilitated to a great degree.

This Fall the eighth graders at the Long Plain School were entered at the Parting Ways School. This action eliminated the necessity of maintaining a three-grade room in the upper classes of the Long Plain School. One can easily discern in this change a movement of benefit for all pupils involved. The present sixth and seventh graders realize more time for recitation with their teacher. Those members of the eighth grade who transferred to the Parting Ways School are deriving helpful practice from departmentalized teaching. Briefly, this method encompasses specialized techniques in that one teacher supervises one major subject. Five teachers have the responsibility of offering training in the five major subjects rather than one. The pupils themselves gain rapidly under this type of instruction. Parents of the children making the transfer have indicated their approval of the action and reveal a strong support of it.

Several vacancies were created in June through marriage of teachers. To fill these positions, four in number, the following teachers were elected: Frances Gifford of Acushnet to teach grades one, two and three at the Long Plain School, Helen Wroblinski of Acushnet to teach grades one and two at the Marie S. Howard School, Ada Jackson of New Bedford to teach departmental English in grades six, seven and eight at the Parting Ways School and Anne Cox of New Bedford to teach grade one at the Parting Ways School.

School Department employees were placed on the fifty-two weeks payment plan beginning in the Fall of 1937. This means that the yearly salary is divided into fifty-two parts rather than thirty-eight parts and is dispensed weekly throughout the year. Although each weekly payment is considerably smaller the employees find the schedule more satisfactory because compensation continues without break affording opportunity for better budgeting.

During the summer months the Parting Ways School was enhanced in appearance by the application of two coats of paint. The work was well done and the school should stand up for some time to come without further exterior repair. Several sections of new fence were constructed at the Marie S. Howard

School to replace old and broken down pickets which tended to detract from the appearance of the playground.

Some difficulty arose with respect to transportation of students to the Bristol County Agricultural School in Segranset. The School bus formerly used for this purpose was removed from the highways in October. In the face of this emergency private passenger automobiles were utilized until bids on another School bus could be solicited. Figures were forthcoming from several Acushnet residents. A three-year contract was awarded Norman Harrison, of 26 Slocum Street, effective on January 3, 1938. It is anticipated that the problem of transporting our youngsters to the above-mentioned school will be well managed in the future.

Attendance at the Evening Vocational School classes in New Bedford is comparatively large at this time, approximately thirty five being enrolled. This type of education is valuable in that the opportunity is afforded whereby the person following a particular trade may improve himself sufficiently to insure his chances of continued employment.

Coincident with the re-opening of Evening High School classes in New Bedford the Acushnet School Committee voted to assume the obligation of paying tuition charges for residents desiring to add to their education in this manner. Ten people enrolled in these classes during October.

In 1930 Adult Alien Education was dropped in Acushnet. Receiving innumerable requests to again conduct and supervise classes in Americanization the School Board gave the matter due consideration. In October 1937 the Committee authorized the organization of an Americanization program. Classes began at the Parting Ways School on Saturday morning, November 6, 1937 with a very large number in attendance. Over fifty adults revealed a sharp interest in securing American citizenship. When one recognizes the fact that many tax-payers are not yet citizens it is clear that these people should have the privilege of making a genuine effort to secure their papers. It is gratifying to note the sincere eagerness of those individuals now attending the Americanization classes. Mrs. Frances Gifford and Miss Anna Orlowski are teaching the groups in a superior way.

There are eight more Acushnet students attending the New Bedford High School. One pupil is attending the Wareham High School. Three students are continuing their education at the Fairhaven High School. These latter mentioned people are exceptions to the rule and have been granted this privilege by the School Committees of Wareham and Fairhaven respectively. Remaining in the same system until graduation tends to preserve one's continuity of progress in secondary school studies. Such discretion is an act of courtesy on the part of School Boards involved and means much to students so recognized.

Under the provisions of Part 1 of Chapter 70 of the General Laws, which provides State reimbursement on account of the employment of teachers, $5,350.00 was due the Town of Acushnet on November 20, 1937. For the tuition in the public schools of children in the custody of the State Division of Child Guardianship, under the provisions of General Laws, Chapter 76, sections 7 to 10, inclusive, the sum of $546.60 was received from the State. The refund on account of Vocational Education was $4,218.50. For the information of the townspeople the State reimburses one-half the tuition charges for Vocational, Continuation School and Adult Alien Education.

Calling your attention to the Age and Grade Distribution chart I am pleased to note an increase in the number of pupils of normal age. There is a marked decrease in the number over age and an evident though slight increase among those under age. A direct aftermath of this more desirable distribution is seen in the rapidly diminishing number of children three years or more retarded in progress.

It means much to one who supervises the growth of the learning process to observe such plain evidence of maximum absorption of instruction so effectively rendered by the teaching staff.

All School Department employees are working together in amenable steadfastness. Acceptable school techniques are directly dependent upon the kind of loyalty and cooperation they manifest daily. The Trust Fund Commissioners have assisted materially by providing many supplementary textbooks.

In closing my report I sincerely acknowledge the ready interest and practical judgment of the School Committee in administering the schools of Acushnet. It is gratifying to note a continued friendly response of the general public to problems pertaining to the education of its youth.

Very respectfully yours,

ALBERT F. FORD,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE AND SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

To the School Committee, Superintendent of Schools and Residents of Acushnet:

At the close of another school year we respectfully submit the following report for the year 1937.

With great pleasure we record another year without a case of Diphtheria among our many school children, and as more and more children enter school having come up through the baby clinic, the pre school care, and the cooperation of the principals and teachers, we find far less organic diseases.

Each year shows more and more the unfortunate results of the lack of milk and other high vitamin containing food. We sincerely hope that restrictions may be lessened before long so that they may receive milk for a less price or some means devised whereby the undernourished children at least might receive added food. As a whole the parents have shown a very cooperative spirit, but when they say "We get only five or six dollars each week", we really have no answer but to try and find some solution.

The superintendent, principals and teachers have been both kind and generous and especially cooperative in helping all they possibly can, and as a whole the general health morale has improved and many of our children have become tooth and posture conscious.

We look into the future with great hope and sincerely thank the superintendent, teachers and parents for their interest and cooperation.

Respectfully,

MARGARET H. HEAP, R. N.,

JOEL P. BRADFORD, M. D.
