V. NEW BUSINESS

1. GOLF WAGE & CLASS UPDATE

Mr. Isaac spoke about the wage & class updates that were done during the year. The Second Assistant position was proposed to be a grade 4- the second assistant had left the course and it took all summer to replace him because of the pay grade. The Golf Committee agreed to go back to the $17.00 per hour wage and agreed to evaluate relative salary to the Assistant Superintendent/Bunker Tech. The Committee is asking the BOS to move the class to a grade 5 relative to the level of responsibilities. Selectman Gaspar motioned to change the grade, Selectman Desroches seconded and all were in favor. Selectman Gaspar Congratulated Mr. Flynn for being Chairman for the Golf committee recent position.

2. DISCUSSION OF THREE YEAR LEASES AND NEW FIVE YEAR LEASE

Mr. Isaac spoke about a plan for the golf cart lease. There is a payment due on 7/1/2020 for $39,000 and an additional balloon payment due of $77,000 result of trying to utilize a 5 year lease that didn't work out. The Golf Committee is trying to roll the $77,000 into another 3 year lease effective fy22-24. The leasing company will not agree until actual vote is taken. Selectman Gaspar motioned to approve the 3 year lease pay the current balloon payment and go forward for another 3 years. Selectman Desroches seconded and all were in favor.

Another plan regarding the equipment starting this year is to replace one fairway mower & one rough mower, utilizing the funds that were appropriated at town meeting under article 9 which was for $150,000 to outright purchase the fairway mower to save on interest payments & we plan to use $40,000 to upgrade the tent, carts & greens for outings.

Selectman Gaspar motioned to expend $55,000 for the purchase of the fairway mower, Selectman Desroches seconded and all were in favor.

It was also voted to enter into the 5 year lease for the rough mower to take delivery in April to start making payments in July. Selectman Gaspar made the motion to approve the 5 year lease, Selectman Desroches seconded and all were in favor.
